

60 th

ANNIVERSARY

Dedication

In recognition of a lifetime of teaching, 19 years of which were devoted to the students of Highlands Junior High, the staff of the 1976 yearbook respectfully dedicate this issue to Mrs. Grace Chichak, who will be held in fondest memories.

A successful teacher needs:

The education of a college president,
The executive ability of a financier,
The humility of a deacon,
The adaptability of a chameleon,
The hope of an optomist,
The courage of a hero,
The wisdom of a serpent,
The gentleness of a dove,
The patience of Job,
The grace of God, and
The persistence of the devil.

Samuel Butler

Mrs Chichak came to Highlands in 1957 after teaching in other city and country schools, where she taught Art and Social Studies. When the typing area was originated, she took over that area and continued it sucessfully until her retirement. On the retirement of Mr Sid Butler as Librarian, she also took possession of the library for the rest of her stay at Highlands. On her retirement, the Grace Chichak Librarian award was named in her honor, and will be awarded to the most deserving Student-Librarian each year. Best of wishes and a happy retirement Mrs Chichak.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

On school-closing day, every boy and girl has a date with history. It is a date which marks the end of a school year: a date on which you will reflect upon your year's successes and failures; a date which in part will determine your life course.

Only you can determine your life course. To that end, you may wish to formulate a set of general principles to guide you. May I suggest when formulating your general principles you must recognize:

The need for continuing education;
That living democratically is the most satisfying form of society;
That you are part of society and must play your part;
That everything you hear is not necessarily true; you must sift the evidence;
That you must discipline yourself to meet difficulties, unpleasantness, discomfort, frustration and hardship and never give up;
That you need a spiritual guide;
That your greatest material satisfactions will arise from achievement through work.

No preparation, no planning and no strategy can guarantee success; one can only deserve it. If one has fun trying and finds his happiness along the road, then it doesn't matter if the journey ever ends.

I would like to thank Mr. Christensen and the yearbook staff for allowing me to contribute to this yearbook and to take this opportunity to wish all of you success in all your future endeavors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the Student's Union, I would like to thank the students of Highlands for making the 75-76 term a success.

It's been a hard year. My grades went down and I lost my knowledge, but it's been fun.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Leady, Miss Bayko, and our Treasurer for their help.

I know next year will be a strong one. Good luck to the next Student's Union.

Yearbook Staff

EDITOR

It has been a great pleasure to be elected Editor by my Yearbook Staff.

They were a dedicated hard-working staff and we managed to combine a lot of hard work with a lot of fun. I also thank Mr. Christensen for being such a great advisor.

Thank-you Yearbook Staff for making this year possible. Deb

YEARBOOK ADVISOR

This year has been particularly rewarding for me. The Yearbook has progressed well with few hitches and the minimum of work on my part. The devotion, dedication and enthusiasm shown by the staff have made our association the most pleasant of experiences. A special thanks from the Teaching Staff, Students and particularly myself to your Editor Debbie Thompson and her Associate Bev Hoffman and all the rest who produced the memories of Highlands 1975-76 you now see before you.

Deb

ASSOCIATE

I have really enjoyed being on the Yearbook Staff this year. I can honestly say that Deb and Mr. Christensen have really done a lot of work, but most of the credit goes to the other hard-working members that gave up many of their noon hours to create this Yearbook. Bev

Myself

The rain creates - wet and strong,
it has a luminous glow.

It's power is in each miniature rain drop -
each irrigates the land, brings the dead, dry, soil back to life.
It fertilizes the good;
washes away the bad.
The rain creates, feeds, and destroys - the rain lives.

Penny Provencal, 9F

I'm a part of history,
My cultural background will always remain.
I am living in the past and mainly in the future.
I relive my ancestors' traditions.
'Cause that is why I live.
My past is my beginning; my background.
I'm more than one person,
I'm the blood of many generations.
I'm promised a future,
An offer to be taken.

CANADA

Mountains are beautiful things,
They're so big and huge,
They were left over from the ice age,
The rocks were the refuge.

The prairies are so flat,
With few hills to be seen.
After the farmers work them over,
They look so neat and clean.

The rolling hills,
Separate these two land forms.
Up and down like an airplane,
Through a wicked storm.

In Canada
These and many other great creations can be found,
That's why they call it Canada,
The best country around!

My Grandfather

He was a very special man, I'm told.
Stout, broad-shouldered and very bold.
He rode and tamed wild horses.
He owned a dog as big as a bobcat,
As fierce as a mother grizzly bear.
His dog's name was Marsh.

My Grandfather loved his family and friends.
He carried with him a merry laugh,
He plowed fields with a wild four-horse team.
He loved challenges—it was his way.
He drew respect from everyone.
Strict he was,
Gentle his heart,
He was my Grandfather,
And my memory of him still lives.

AS ONE

I saw an old man who walked-
he was weak and feeble,
I wanted to reach out and help him-
I had many things to say.

But he was old and I young-he'd seen the sun rise, but my horizons had just begun.
And so he went on-
but it seemed so futile,
so he turned and faced the sun.

His eyes widened and shone as though his life had just begun-he gave me a smile that I will always recall,
and though he was old, and so small-he travelled on.

And so I took his arm and walked with him-
and together we saw the sun, we were neither old or young, and not as two, but as one.

Penny Provencal. 9F
PRESSURE

From friends,
To be like them.
From parents,
To be that which they never were.
From teachers,
To be perfect.
From oneself,
There isn't any room
To be that which one wants.

The Country

The country is my home,
My friend; my prize.
Everything is wild and free.
The swaying of the wheat fields,
Enchants my poetic spirits.
My mind helplessly wanders,
Forgetting about the necessities of life.
Friendship and country life,
A desired dream.

Leave me in the mist of a dewey morning,
And I'll create a story.
Leave me in a grassy pasture,
And I'll see the pioneers working,
Chopping the dense bush that once stood.
Light me a bon-fire,
I'll tell tales of long ago.
When I die, take me to the country, Sir.
Riding in a horse and buggy.

Gail Hussynec, 9E

A SNOWFLAKE

As I walked upon the street
I saw a snowflake,
It landed on my forehead,
Before I could wipe it away
It melted.
The water crawled down my skin
Onto my eye,
It turned into a teardrop
Which rolled down my cheek,
To see the snowflake,
Melt away.
